Principal/CEO's Welcome Message

Greetings from the Staff & Management of The YPLS School Of Learning.

Having served the education industry for more than a decade, I believe in quality education and we are here to deliver it. Offering various levels of the Preparatory Course for Admission into Government School, we strive to help our students achieve their goals that they have set.

At our school, we are committed to provide value-add services as well as genuine advice to all our potential students. In our quest to extend our best, we focus on the importance of the following to meet the learning needs of our students and help them chart their education pathway:

- a conducive & excellent learning environment
- experienced, dedicated and well-qualified teachers
- reliable staff and management

With this, I wish to extend my warmest regards to you and thank you in advance for choosing us in your learning journey!

Yours sincerely
Carina Yong

Please refer to the Data Protection Notification Statement.

COURSE INFORMATION

12. COURSE ASSESSMENT

Mode of assessment is to be determined by written tests (100%). We provide monthly progress reports to monitor our student's academic progress. Parents of our students will be notified of their performance regularly through their local guardians and/or relatives. Progress reports to be issued within 7 working days after the monthly test.

Missed examination will be received a mark of zero (0) unless the student presents a medical certificate (MC) or other valid reason in writing.

13. MARKING AND GRADING SCHEME

The marking and grading scheme for the monthly tests are as follows:

80-100	A
70-79	B
60-69	C
50-59	D
31-49	E
0-30	U

Students who have obtained Grade E or U in the monthly test will be required to attend the compulsory remedial sessions, following which they will be required to sit for a re-test.

14. CERTIFICATE OF ATTENDANCE

A certificate of attendance will awarded upon completion of the course based on a minimum of 90% attendance of scheduled course duration.

The calculation based on:

$$\frac{\text{Total monthly attendance}}{\text{Total schedule course duration}} \times 100\%$$

ADMINISTRATIVE INFORMATION

18. SCHOOL CURRICULUM

Our integrated curriculum is exciting, challenging and has been carefully planned and structured for 7 to 16 year old students (international and returning Singaporeans) who wish to pursue their primary and secondary education in Singapore. We cover subjects that are tested in the AEIS entrance examination ie English and Mathematics.

19. ADMISSION CRITERIA

Students are required to take a placement test. They will be placed at a suitable level based on the outcome of their results with consideration of their age and highest level of education. They may be placed in a suitable ongoing class of our PREPARATORY COURSE FOR ADMISSION TO GOVERNMENT SCHOOLS, subject to available vacancy, or in a separate new class.

20. TARGET STUDENTS

We accept students between 7 and 16 years of age.

21. ORIENTATION

Orientation Programme is usually conducted during the first two weeks of the course.

22. LETTER OF OFFER AND LETTER OF ACCEPTANCE WITH TERMS AND CONDITIONS

For the Immersion Holiday Programme whose total duration is less than 30 days or 50 hours, a YPLS letter of offer stating the terms and conditions in the admission and enrolment of a student into YPLS and a letter of acceptance of the stated terms and conditions by the student and the parent or guardian will constitute a student contract and a binding agreement.

It is compulsory for all students to sign the Letter of Offer and Letter of Acceptance with YPLS at the point of acceptance and enrolment into the School. Each Letter of Acceptance has a unique number.

For Immersion Holiday Programme (IHP) whose total duration is more than 30 days or 50 hours, the standard PEI-Student Contract will be applied.

23. COURSE FEES / MISCELLANEOUS FEES

YPLS clearly states Course / Miscellaneous Fees incurred. The fees' breakdown are prominently displayed in the reception and are clearly defined in the Letter of Offer and communication materials.

24. ACCURACY OF CHARGING

YPLS is committed to charging accurately. List of course fees used are clear and legible, reflecting the total amount payable and its breakdown including GST payable.

25. PAYMENT METHODS AND CHANNELS

The student may make his / her student fees payment by the following methods: -

*For All Fees (FPS and Non-FPS Course Fees, Exceptions like Application/Miscellaneous Fees)

SGD Crossed Cheque / DBS iBanking / DBS & POSB ATM / Cash at any DBS Branch / Telegraphic Transfer to:

Bank (Beneficiary) Account Name: The YPLS School of Learning Pte Ltd

Bank (Beneficiary) Account No: 003-901857-6

Beneficiary's Bank Name : DBS Bank Ltd

SWIFT BIC Code : DBSSSGSG

Note:

All fees refer to all monies that are paid to YPLS by the student to be enrolled in YPLS. The following fees are exempted from the FPS, if collected by YPLS:

- Course application fee
- Prevailing Goods and Services Tax (GST)
- Miscellaneous fees
- FPS insurance premium
- Examination fees collected less than 2 months before examination date.

Application fee refers to the fee that the student pay the PEI for the sole purpose of processing the application form submitted so that the PEI can check if the student meets the course admission requirements.

Miscellaneous fee refers to any non-compulsory and non-standard fee which the students will pay only when necessary or applicable, for example, re-exam fee, charges for credit card payment, etc. Such fee is normally collected on an ad-hoc basis by YPLS when the need arises. These miscellaneous fees need not be protected but they must be reflected clearly in the student contract.

26. STUDENT MEDICAL INSURANCE

The YPLS School of Learning has in place a medical insurance scheme for all its students. This medical insurance scheme shall minimally provide for an annual coverage limit of not less than S$20,000 per student, at least B2 ward in government and restructured hospitals and 24 hours coverage in Singapore and overseas (if student is involved in school-related activities) throughout the course duration. The school-appointed medical insurance provider is AIA Insurance.

The YPLS School of Learning has also in place a supplementary policy for accidental death and dismemberment for all its student under the above scheme for an annual coverage principal sum assured of S$10,000 per student.

27. STUDENT FEEDBACK

Students are required to complete regular feedback forms handed out by the School Administration for purposes of evaluating the study environment and teaching standards. The reports will be reviewed by the Management and appropriate action/s will be taken to uphold, maintain or improve on the standards based on the feedbacks.

You are most welcome to give us your feedback at any time and the feedback forms are available at a designated point. All feedback information will be kept strictly private and confidential.

28. SCHOOL ATTENDANCE POLICY

28.1 Student's monthly attendance is calculated based on

$$\frac{\text{Total number of lessons attended by the student}}{\text{Total no of lesson required to attend by the student}} \times 100\%$$

28.2 If the student is unable to attend any class due to illness, a Medical Certificate (MC) is required to show proof of absence from the doctor. The MC is to be submitted to the school when the student returns to school.

28.3 Students who intend to take leave of absence from school must duly complete the Request for Leave of Absence form from the School and obtain formal approval from the School before any travel arrangements are confirmed. Students are to make a photocopy of the travel arrangement (air ticket) and submit to the school for recording purposes.

28.4 From time to time, activities may be organized that take place outside of the classroom. These outings are considered part of the class lessons and attendance is compulsory.

28.5 Students must attend a minimum of 90% of scheduled course (subject) hours or not be absent from the course for consecutive of seven (7) days. This is the strict requirement set by the Immigration and Checkpoints Authority, Singapore (ICA).

Note :

Rules and Regulations from ICA on student's attendance

Student must attend a minimum of 90% of scheduled course (subject) hours or not be absent from the course for consecutively seven (7) days.

If student pass holder's attendances fall below 90%, ICA will also be informed of the student's failure to meet minimum attendance requirement for that month.

29 EMERGENCY

In the event of an emergency YPLS will try to contact the parents or guardian of the student. It is important that all communication channels with the parents or guardians be accurate and updated regularly. It will be the responsibility of the student to inform and update the school administration of any changes.

SCHOOL POLICIES

30 IHP REFUND POLICIES

(for total course duration less than 30 days or 50 hrs)

a) Notification and Arrangement

YPLS shall inform the Student immediately within three (3) working days if

- i. It fails, for any reason, to commence the Course on the Course Commencement Date;
- ii. It terminates the Course, for any reason, prior to the Course Commencement Date;
- iii. It fails, for any reason, to complete the Course by the Course Completion Date;
- iv. It terminates the Course, for any reason, prior to Course Completion Date; or

b) Withdrawal for Cause

The Student shall be entitled to immediately withdraw from the Course by giving written notice to YPLS of his/her intention to do so if YPLS is in breach of any of its obligations under the terms and conditions as stated in the Letter of Offer or fails to perform its obligation(s) under the circumstances in Clause a (i) to (iv).

c) Refunds for Withdrawal For Cause

For circumstances under Clause a, YPLS shall, within seven (7) working days after notifying the Student, refund to the Student:

- The entire amount of the Course Fees; and
- The Miscellaneous Fees

YPLS shall also, as soon as practicable after receiving the Student's notice of withdrawal under Clause b (and in any event no later than seven (7) working days after receiving such notice) refund to the Student the amounts stated in this Clause c.

d) Refunds for Withdrawal Without Cause

Where the Student withdraws from the Course for any reason other than those set out in Clause b, YPLS shall, as soon as practicable after receiving the Student's written notice of withdrawal (and in any event no more than seven (7) working days after receiving such notice) refund to the Student the following sums

% of (the aggregate amount of the fees paid under Letter of Offer and Letter of Agreement)	If Student's written notice of withdrawal is received
100%	("Maximum Refund") More than 30 days before the Course Commencement Date
70%	Before, but not more than 30 days before the Course Commencement Date

0%	More than 3 days after the Course Commencement Date

e) Cooling Off Period

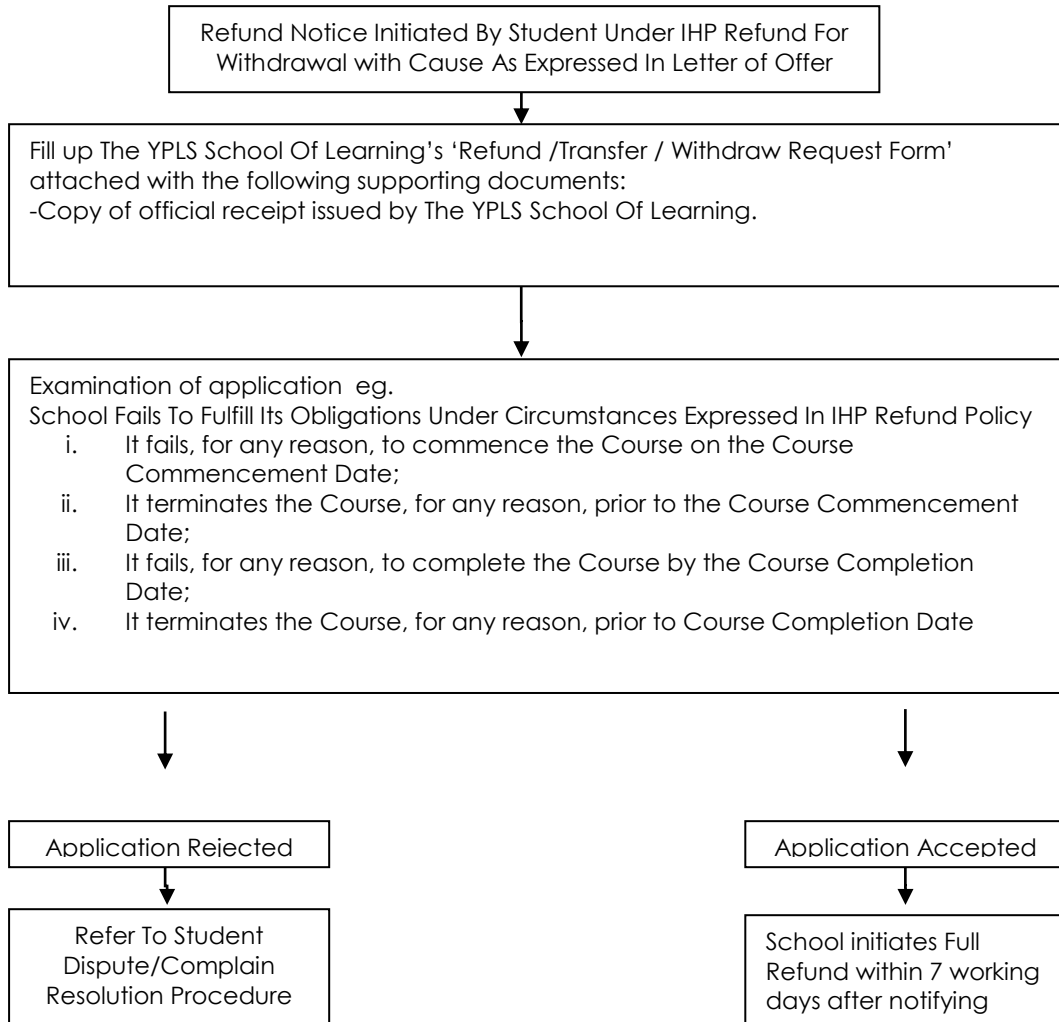

YPLS shall not provide any cooling off period under the Immersion Holiday Programme whose total duration is less than 30 days or 50 hours

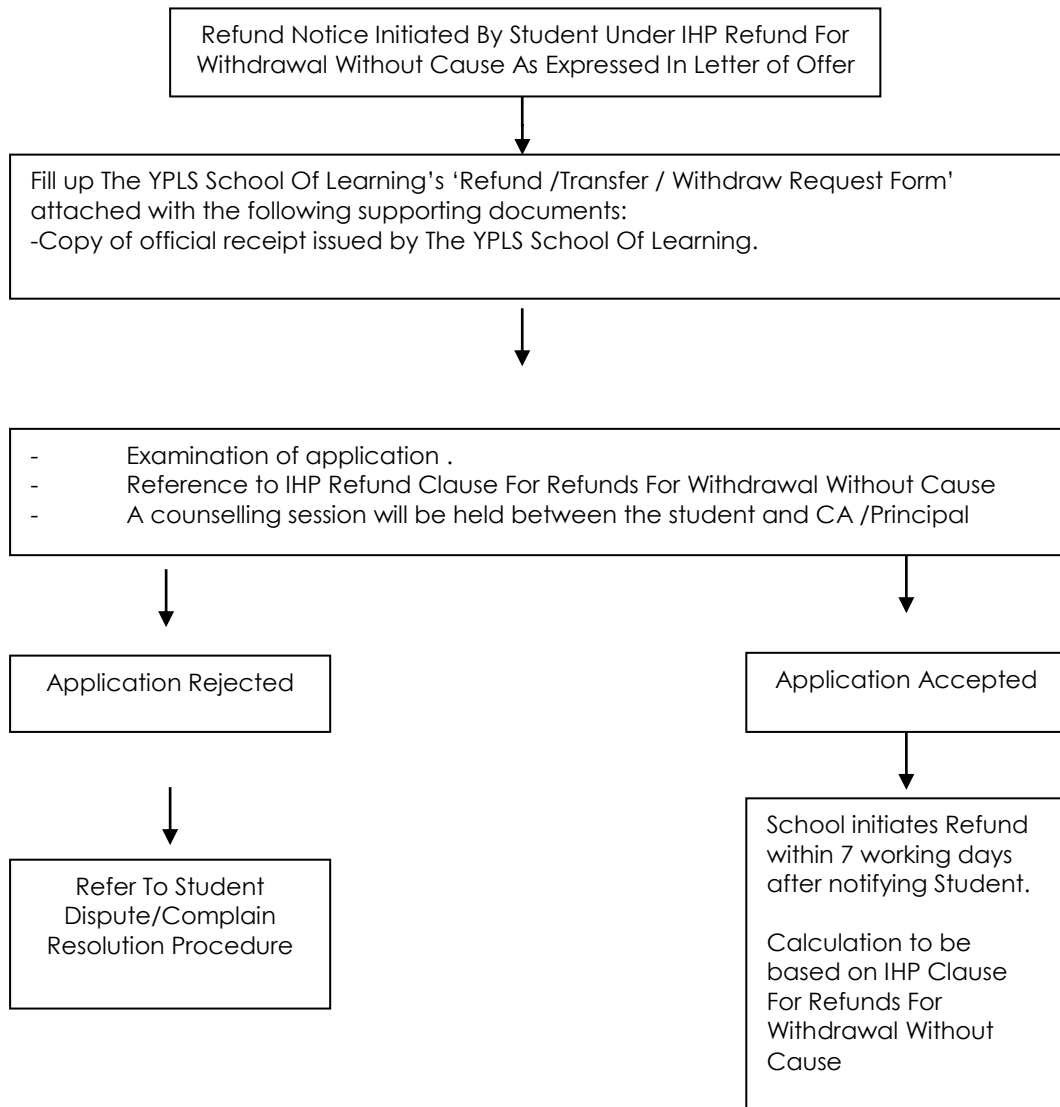

f) Deemed Withdrawal

A Student who transfers from the Course to another course with YPLS shall be deemed to have withdrawn from the Course and the provisions of Clause d shall apply save as otherwise agreed between YPLS and the Student.

g) Change Of Course

Further to Clause f, a fresh Contract shall be executed between YPLS and the Student for any change of Course, whether with YPLS or otherwise.

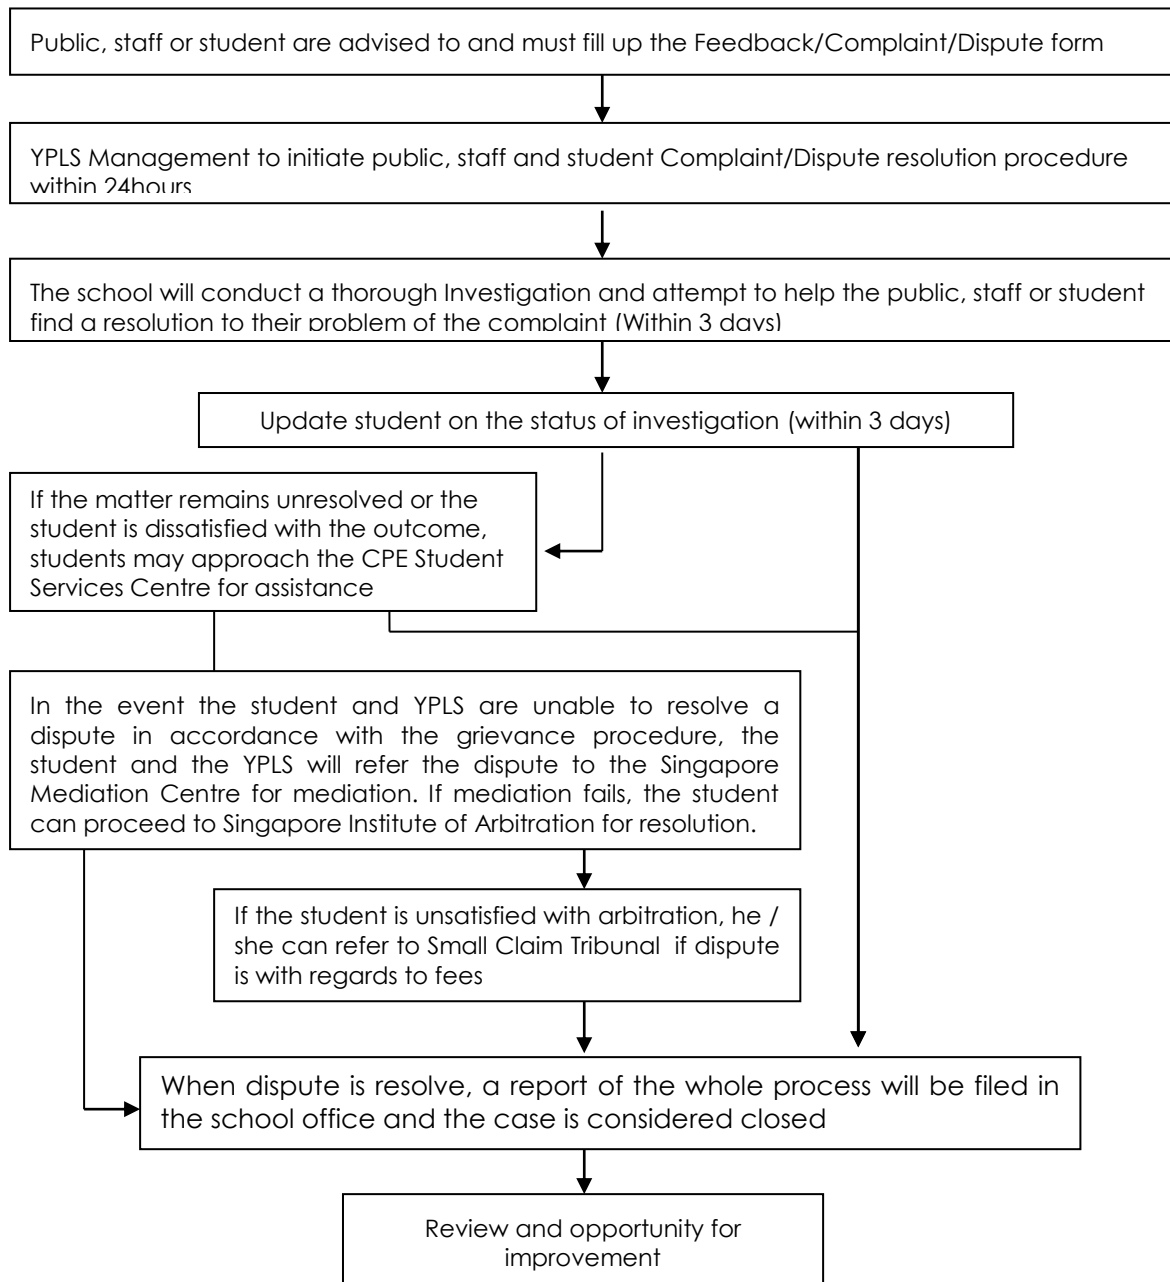

31 STUDENT GRIEVANCE

YPLS, in its continual efforts to improve its courses, delivery, administration and service quality, will make every effort to address and resolve any complaints, grievances or disputes sympathetically, fairly, promptly and confidentially. Any actions taken which are of public interest will be published where appropriate and applicable

31.1 Student Feedback And Grievance Resolution Procedure (Complaint/Dispute Resolution Process Should Not Exceed 21 Days)

32 STUDENTS DISCIPLINARY

The school takes the stance of dispensing the 'soft-approach' to dealing with students with disciplinary issues for it believes that any behavioural misconduct can be the result of emotional or mental stress. Therefore, the school will provide pastoral counselling to find out the real cause of the poor conduct before taking any formal action against the concerned student.

However, the student may face suspension or expulsion from the school, depending on the degree of seriousness of the offence. Any formal notification or action taken against the student concerned is subject to the Principal's or Management's discretion.

The final decision will be made by the Management after observation of the due disciplinary process.

The following table outlines the disciplinary process:

Occurrence of offence	Pastoral Counselling	Disciplinary Action/Form of notification
1	YES	Verbal Warning and/or Counselling and Advice Form
2	YES	Verbal Warning and/or Counselling and Advice Form
3	NO	Notification or *
4	NO	Formal Warning or *
5	NO	*Suspension or Expulsion

* denotes the issuance of suspension or expulsion depends on the degree of seriousness of the offence, and the final decision is made by the Management after observation of the due disciplinary process.

33 SUSPENSION AND EXPULSION POLICY

YPLS shall not hesitate to suspend or expel any students who flout the school disciplinary observations, rules and regulations.

A student facing expulsion will not be eligible for any fees refund

The final decision will be made by management after observation of the due disciplinary process
